ABC-Amega Chief Financial Officer Named Executive Vice President

Buffalo, NY – ABC-Amega is proud to announce that its Chief Financial Officer, Robert (Bob) States, has been promoted to the additional post of Executive Vice President.

Bob States began his affiliation with ABC-Amega in 2011 serving in a consulting capacity for the company, before being named Chief Financial Officer in March of 2012. In his current role, Bob oversees the company's Finance and IT divisions. He recently directed the implementation of state-of-the-art data security measures, and in 2015, he directly managed the company's move to the historic 500 Seneca building in Buffalo's Hydraulics District.

"Bob's accomplishments through the years make him an outstanding executive who enhances our standing in the our marketplace, in our community, and among each other," said David Herer, Chief Executive Officer, ABC-Amega.

States holds an MBA in Finance and Accounting from St. Bonaventure University. He also earned a CPA, beginning his career in public accounting for industry leader KPMG, and held the position of CFO for Liazon Corporation before joining ABC-Amega.
