New York Media Credit Group Introduces New Name and Logo

Buffalo, NY – New York Media Credit Group (NYMCG), a credit group managed by ABC-Amega, has changed their name to National Media Credit Professionals (NMCP) and introduced a new logo.

The NMCP, established in the 1960s, is one of the most active credit associations for media credit professionals. Members include more than 40 major media companies in TV, radio, cable, outdoor, print and digital media.

NMCP's mission is to bring together leaders in the media credit industry willing to share their expertise to help make the group a vital and valuable asset to all its members nationwide.

"We felt compelled to change our name so that it echoes the true nature of our credit group," said Paul Grolemond, Divisional Vice President Credit Services, ABC-Amega. "We are inclusive of all media regardless of location, and now our group name reflects this."
