

National Creditors Bar Association 2018 Fall Conference – A Great Success!

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 17, 2018

[UNIVERSITY PARK, FL] It is fair to conclude that NCBA's recent conference was a great success! 900 people participated in so many ways to turn this event into a smoothly running conference with many very interesting presentations, outstanding business development opportunities and a very good atmosphere for discussion and networking.

Participants are thanked for all your great hands-on creditors rights law practice input and for many fruitful discussions on the practice of law.

The Conference was host to a total of 26 client meetings, including 6 open meetings – all of which were well attended. There were 18 sessions on a wide range of topics including marketing your firm, bankruptcy, litigation, 2 mock courts and ethics. We were also very excited to have Tom Pahl from the BCFP at the Conference to answer member questions about what is going on in the BCFP. The energy level Thursday and Friday at the Conference was off the charts.

In addition, we hosted 75 first time attendees and/or new members at the conference. These VIPs were our guests for a special dinner: an introduction to NCBA and networking with fellow new colleagues on Wednesday evening. We extended the welcome with a trolley tour of Nashville, complete with a tasting and tour of a hard cider distillery on Thursday evening. Both events were sponsored by new NCBA National Partner - Insperity. A good time was had by all!

Many of the attendees, clients and exhibitors have said to me - "This was the best conference ever"!

The next NCBA Conference is in Minneapolis, Minnesota and I anticipate it is going to be the best one yet. Minneapolis is a great city with lots to do and the conference hotel is in a new, vibrant area with lots of bars and restaurants. Better yet, the hotel is only $199 per night and Minneapolis is a hub for Delta so there should be a lot of direct flights to get there, and, we also have a conference discount special secured with American Airlines. In addition to the best-in-class education sessions and ample client meetings for our members (both large and small) to attend, we also plan to roll out our new one-day compliance boot camp for compliance attorneys and compliance officers that will culminate with a test to earn the NCBA Compliance Certificate (assuming the test is passed), as well as host our ever-popular Litigation Boot Camp!
